NEW QUESTION: 1

You administer all the deployments of Microsoft SQL Server 2016 in your company.

You need to ensure that data changes are sent to a non-SQL Server database server in near real time.

You also need to ensure that data on the primary server is unaffected.

Which configuration should you use?

- A. SQL Server that includes an application database configured to perform transactional replication
- B. Two servers configured in different data centers SQL Server Availability Group configured in Synchronous-Commit Availability Mode One server configured as an Active Secondary
- C. Two servers configured in the same data center A primary server configured to perform log-shipping every 10 minutes A backup server configured as a warm standby
- D. Two servers configured on the same subnet SQL Server Availability Group configured in Synchronous-Commit Availability Mode
- E. Two servers configured in different data centers SQL Server Availability Group configured in AsynchronousCommit Availability Mode
- F. Two servers configured in a Windows Failover Cluster in the same data center SQL Server configured as a clustered instance
- G. SQL Server that includes an application database configured to perform snapshot replication
- H. Two servers configured in the same data center SQL Server Availability Group configured in AsynchronousCommit Availability Mode One server configured as an Active Secondary

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

SQL Server supports the following heterogeneous scenarios for transactional and snapshot replication:

Publishing data from SQL Server to non-SQL Server Subscribers.

Publishing data to and from Oracle has some restrictions.

NEW QUESTION: 2

Note: This question is part of a series of questions that present the same scenario. Each question in the series contains a unique solution that might meet the stated goals. Some question sets might have more than one correct solution, while others might not have a correct solution.

After your answer a question in this section, you will NOT be able to return to it. As a result, these questions will not appear in the review screen.

Your network contains an Active Directory domain. The domain contains a new file server named Server1 that runs a Server Core installation of Windows Server 2016.

Server1 has an ReFS-formatted volume D: and NTFS-formatted volume E: The volumes do not contain any data.

You install the Data Deduplication role service on Server1. You need to implement Data Deduplication for volumes on D: and E:.

Solution: From Windows PowerShell, you run Format-Volume D: -FileSystem NTFS and Enable-DeDupVolume -Volume D:,E:.

Does this meet the goal?

A. Yes

B. No

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Explanation:

Data Deduplication is supported on NTFS formatted volumes. You, therefore, need to format the ReFS- formatted volume D: as an NTFS volume.

The Enable-DedupVolume cmdlet enables data deduplication on one or more volumes.

NEW QUESTION: 3

Which three features describe DTLS protocol? (Choose three.)

A. DTLS provides block cipher encryption and decryption services.

B. DTLS is designed to prevent man-in-the-middle attacks, message tampering, and message forgery.

C. DTLS provides enhanced security, as compared to TLS.

D. DTLS is used by application layer protocols that use UDP as a transport mechanism.

E. DTLS does not support replay detection.

F. DTLS handshake does not support reordering or manage loss packets.

Answer: A,B,D

Explanation:

The BEAST attack [BEAST] uses issues with the TLS 1.0 implementation of Cipher Block

Chaining (CBC) (that is, the predictable initialization vector) to decrypt parts of a packet, and specifically to decrypt HTTP cookies when HTTP is run over TLS.

TLS allows the definition of ephemeral Diffie-Hellman (DH) and Elliptic Curve Diffie-Hellman parameters in its respective key exchange modes. In addition, clients that do not properly verify the received parameters are exposed to man-in-the-middle (MITM) attacks. DTLS is an adaptation of TLS for UDP.
