C. You can use EC2 Instances that were createdoutisde the

Answer: A,B,C Explanation:
Explanation
The AWS Documentation mentions the following
1) You can start and stop instances manually or have AWS Ops Works Stacks automatically scale the number of instances. You can use time-based automatic scaling with any stack; Linux stacks also can use load-based scaling.
2) In addition to using AWS OpsWorks Stacks to create Amazon
L~C2 instances, you can also register instances with a Linux stack that were created outside of AWS Ops Works Stacks. This includes Amazon CC2 instances and instances running on your own hardware. However, they must be running one of the supported Linux distributions. You cannot register Amazon CC2 or on-premises Windows instances.
3) A stack's instances can run either Linux or Windows. A stack can have different Linux versions or distributions on different instances, but you cannot mix Linux and Windows instances.

Windows Server 2016.

share.

create a sync group.

Explanation:
Step 1: Install the Azure File Sync agent on Server1
The Azure File Sync agent is a downloadable package that enables Windows Server to be synced with an Azure file share Step 2: Register Server1.
Register Windows Server with Storage Sync Service
Registering your Windows Server with a Storage Sync Service establishes a trust relationship between your server (or cluster) and the Storage Sync Service.
Step 3: Add a server endpoint
Create a sync group and a cloud endpoint.
A sync group defines the sync topology for a set of files.
Endpoints within a sync group are kept in sync with each other.
A sync group must contain one cloud endpoint, which represents an Azure file share and one or more server endpoints. A server endpoint represents a path on registered server.
