NEW QUESTION: 1

Sie verwenden eine Microsoft SQL Server 2014-Datenbank, die zwei Tabellen mit den Namen SalesOrderHeader und SalesOrderDetail enthalt. Die Indizes in den Tabellen entsprechen den Angaben in der Ausstellung. (Klicken Sie auf die Schaltflache "Ausstellen".)

Sie schreiben die folgende Transact-SQL-Abfrage:

Sie stellen fest, dass die Leistung der Abfrage langsam ist. Die Analyse des Abfrageplans zeigt Tabellenscans an, bei denen die geschtzten Zeilen nicht mit den tatsachlichen Zeilen fur SalesOrderHeader ubereinstimmen, indem ein unerwarteter Index fur SalesOrderDetail verwendet wird.

Sie mussen die Leistung der Abfrage verbessern.

Was tun?

- A. Fugen Sie einen Clustered-Index fur SalesOrderId in SalesOrderHeader hinzu.
- B. Statistiken zu SalesOrderId in beiden Tabellen aktualisieren.
- C. Verwenden Sie einen FORCESEEK-Hinweis in der Abfrage.

D. Verwenden Sie einen FORCESCAN-Hinweis in der Abfrage.

Answer: B

Explanation:

New statistics would be useful.

The UPDATE STATISTICS command updates query optimization statistics on a table or indexed view. By default, the query optimizer already updates statistics as necessary to improve the query plan; in some cases you can improve query performance by using UPDATE STATISTICS or the stored procedure sp_updatestats to update statistics more frequently than the default updates.

Answer:

Explanation:

See explanation below.

If Rights management has not been activated in your organization yet, follow the following steps.
When you have confirmed that your organization has a plan that includes Azure Rights Management, navigate to the rights management page from the admin center: Settings > Services & add-ins > Microsoft Azure Information Protection > Manage Microsoft Azure Information Protection settings On the rights management page, click activate.
When you see the message Do you want to activate Rights Management?, click activate.
After activating the Rights Management service, sign in to the SharePoint admin center to turn on IRM.
Sign in to Office 365 as a global admin or SharePoint admin. Select the app launcher icon in the upper-left and choose Admin to open the Microsoft 365 admin center. (If you don't see the Admin tile, you don't have Office 365 administrator permissions in your organization.) In the left pane, choose Admin centers > SharePoint.
In the left pane, choose settings, and then choose classic settings page.
In the Information Rights Management (IRM) section, choose Use the IRM service specified in your configuration, and then choose Refresh IRM Settings. After you refresh IRM settings, people in your organization can begin using IRM in their SharePoint lists and document libraries. However, the options to do so may take up to an hour to appear in Library Settings and List Settings.
To apply IRM to a list or library:
Go to the list or library for which you want to configure IRM. On the ribbon, click the Library tab, and then click . (If you are working in a list, click the List tab, and then click List Settings Under Permissions and Management . If the Information Rights Management link does not appear, IRM might not be enabled for your site. Contact your server administrator to see if it is possible to enable IRM for your site. The Information Rights Management link does not appear for picture libraries. On the Information Rights Management Settings Restrict permission to documents in this library on download check box to apply restricted permission to documents that are downloaded from this list or library.

In the Create a permission policy title box, type a descriptive name for the policy that you can use later to differentiate this policy from other policies. For example, you can type Company Confidential if you are applying restricted permission to a list or library that will contain company documents that are confidential.

In the Add a permission policy description box, type a description that will appear to people who use this list or library that explains how they should handle the documents in this list or library. For example, you can type Discuss the contents of this document only with other employees if you want to restrict access to the information in these documents to internal employees.

To apply additional restrictions to the documents in this list or library, click Show Options, and do any of the following: After you finish selecting the options you want, click OK.
