NEW QUESTION: 3

An employee with a bachelor's degree, an employee who speaks English as a second language, and an individual over the age of 40 are all examples of what?

- A. Protected class groups
- B. Non-discriminatory hiring practices
- C. A diverse work group
- D. Effective knowledge management programs

Answer: C

Explanation:

Answer option A is correct. Diversity simply means "the differences among people." Although diversity encompasses protected-class characteristics (D) and can be a measure of non-discriminatory hiring practices (C), it represents the differences of all employee behaviors and classifications. Knowledge management programs (B) refer to the ability of the employer to retain and apply the collective knowledge of their workers to achieve strategic aims.
